

STORY time

every day. everywhere.

Things to do with kids

Pretend to take an adventure to the moon or the bottom of the sea.

TALK

Ask what colors, shapes and pictures they see at the store or on a walk.

Make up words to your favorite music.
Sing and dance!

READ

Read anything together in any language, like comic books, cereal boxes and road signs.

every day. everywhere.

Every child in Oregon deserves to be a good reader. Reading by third grade puts children on the path to success in school and in life.

We can all do our part. Every day. Everywhere.

Reading, talking, singing and playing with children are great ways to help them learn new words.

Oregon's stORytime helps families find easy and fun ways to add activities that build reading skills into their every day routine.
